

Mark-Aaron welcomed

ST MARY and St John's Church in Finchampstead held a special service to welcome The Revd Mark-Aaron Tisdale as its new Associate Priest.

Worship included music sung by of the combined choirs of St Mary & St John and St James' Churches. During communion, they performed the beautiful composition Ave Verum.

After the service, which was held on Saturday, March 31, the church held a celebration buffet, which was attended by members of the two Finchampstead churches, as well as visitors from Mark-Aaron's former parish of Clifton and Southill.
