Marriage at St James' Church, Finchampstead

Salsa dancers Lisa Perkin and Paul Jones were married at St James' Church in Wokingham on Saturday

Dancing down the aisle!

A COUPLE who met at salsa dancing classes married in Finchampstead on Saturday.

Lisa Perkin, eldest daughter of Jacqueline and Michael Perkin, of Thorpe Close in Wokingham, married Paul Jones at St James' Church.

The groom's parents, Lorraine and Brian Jones of Calne, Wiltshire, also married in the same church 35 years ago.

The bride, who works in pharmaceutical sales development, wore a satin Sophia Tolli gown in ivory, with hand-beaded appliques and a corset lace-up back.

Her veil was held in place with an Amanda Wyatt tiara and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses, white freesia and white lisianthus.

The bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Sarah Perkin, the groom's sister, Nicola Elks, and the bride's school friend, Kate Dooley, from the Abbey School, Reading.

The groom's friend Salim Suleman was best man and the groom's brother, Terry Jones, brother-in-law Duncan Elks and the bride's brother, Richard Perkin, were ushers.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at Highfield Park in Heckfield, Hampshire, for 70 guests.

The couple met in Hertfordshire and, after their honeymoon in Madeira, will make their home in Harpenden.
