Summer fundraisers

A CHURCH is holding a series of fundraising events over the summer which it hopes will raise some much-needed money for good causes.

St James Church in Finchampstead is hosting a Mothers' Union bring-and-share lunch and raffle today (Thursday) at noon and a special lecture by the Rev Canon John Edwards on Sunday, September 1, at 7.30pm.

The Mothers' Union sale is an annual event, raising money for 'Wheels Appeal', an international programme that helps to establish transport in areas of poverty.

The lecture on September 1, which is the first of its kind at the church, will be held in conjunction with the Friends of St James's annual Evensong service.

The theme for the evening will be pilgrimage and all money raised will go towards the maintenance of the church buildings.

The events are free of charge and open to all but donations are welcome.
