

Pentecost Intercessions

Come, Holy Spirit, breath of God, and renew us and inspire us.

Come, Holy Spirit, wind of God, refresh us and move us to do what is right.

Come, Holy Spirit, fire of God, warm our hearts and disperse all dullness and coldness.

Come, Holy Spirit, power of God, enable us and help us to live to your glory.

Come, Holy Spirit, as you did to your first disciples, and fill your church on this its birthday, with your presence and power.

The response to the following prayers after the words
'Holy Spirit, come upon us' are: hear us and help us

Come, Holy Spirit, upon us all gathered today, so that we might share your vision with everyone amongst whom we live, work and meet.

Come, Holy Spirit, as you filled the house where the disciples were, fill our homes, our hearts and our families and friends with your love. Let us know that we dwell in you and that you are in us.

We ask your blessings upon all our schools in this parish, and all those who work in them and for them, and we bring before you their concerns and worries as they consider and plan a safe return after the Coronavirus pandemic.

Come, Holy Spirit, Giver of life, breathe newness into all who are exhausted, weary, or without hope. Give your Spirit to those who are sad and downcast . Be with all those who struggle in any way, or cannot cope on their own. May they know your love and your power. Spirit of God, refresh, renew and restore.

Holy Spirit, come upon us

Hear us and help us.

Come, Holy Spirit, that in your renewing we may know that life is eternal. To you, and the Father and the Son, we commit all our loved ones who have departed this earthly life, confident that in your love they are filled with love eternal.
