

Reading This Week:

14/6/20 – Jesus sends out the disciples - Matthew 10:5-20 (abbr)

The disciples are given a difficult job by Jesus, but God will be with them.

Jesus sent out the twelve apostles with these instructions: Tell people that God's kingdom will soon be here. Heal the sick, raise the dead to life, heal people who have leprosy, and force out demons. You received without paying, now give without being paid. Don't take any money with you. And don't carry a travelling bag or an extra shirt or sandals or a walking stick.

Workers deserve their food. So when you go to a town or a village, find someone worthy enough to have you as their guest and stay with them until you leave. When you go into a house, give it your blessing of peace. If the house is deserving, let your blessing remain with them. But if the house isn't deserving, take back your blessing of peace. If someone won't welcome you or listen to your message, leave their home or town. And shake the dust from your feet at them.

I am sending you like lambs into a pack of wolves. So be as wise as snakes and as innocent as doves. Because of me, you will be dragged before rulers and kings to tell them and the Gentiles about your faith. But when someone arrests you, don't worry about what you will say or how you will say it. At that time you will be given the words to say. But you will not really be the one speaking. The Spirit from your Father will tell you what to say
